

Books About And By Deaf Persons

@your library®

Fiction
Non-Fiction
Children Books

Application Form

Book authorities know about deaf culture through own personal experience. Others learn about deaf persons through ASL classes and/or extensive research

Books for group discussion
Books reviewed by speakers
Books retold in American Sign Language by storytellers
Books for displaying

To ensure consistency, please use the following criteria.

- a. Name of Author(s)
- b. Book Title
- c. Subtitle
- d. Name of Editor(s)
- e. Name of Illustrator(s)
- f. Video director (if accompanying the book)
- g. Web site address of the publisher
- h. Year of publishing

Book Authorities

- i. Deaf author (or co-author)
- j. Hearing author (or co-author)
- k. Deaf editor (or co-editor)
- l. Hearing editor (or co-editor)
- m. Deaf illustrator
- n. Hearing illustrator
- o. Deaf video director
- p. Hearing video director

For Hearing Only Please check one or two your background with deaf persons _ grow up with them _ through ASL classes _ research on linguistics or related subjects

Check one that applies to the book

- q. Non-fiction
- r. Non-fiction for young readers
- s. Fiction
- t. Fiction for young readers
- u. Children books

Check one that applies to the book

- v. Fiction including one or more main deaf characters
- w. Fiction including deaf experiences
- x. Fiction by deaf authorities, no mention of deaf persons in the book
- y. Non-fiction by deaf authorities, no mention of deaf persons in the book

If any, Awards, reviews by media