

Deaf Community Contacts

@your library®

Academic Public
School
Special

The Red Notebook
@ your library

Key Contacts
Directory

2007
Updated periodically

Application Form

Deaf Community Contacts @ your library directory is composed of organizations with interests in promoting deaf culture, books and literacy in local communities served by public libraries.

CATEGORIES

A. Academic

C. School

B. Public

D. Special

D. Special Category is divided into five groups

1. Auxiliary Aids /
Support Services

4. Faith-based Community

2. Consumer
Membership

5. Media/ Program
Resources.

3. Human & Social Services

To ensure consistency, please follow criteria below:

1) Category

2) Country

3) Zip code, town, state of the physical address or of the contact

4) Name of organization

5) Date of founding (if not known, use the year it was incorporated or when the first director or president was appointed)

Some organizations include department, division, branch, unit or related name, their acronym and the founding date.

6) Web Site address

7) Contact Name, title and email address

Email data to folda86@aol.com.

The buck stops here. I'm the ultimately responsible person for this organization. Other people can pass the buck to me, but I can't pass the buck to anyone else.

President Harry S Truman

Source: The New Dictionary of Cultural Literacy, Third Edition, 2002

The Red Notebook
@ your library

Key Contacts
Directory

© 2001, 2007
Updated periodically